

Window to Wonder #4: "From Son to Savior"

Luke 2:41-52

Life's transitions can be gloriously hard.

It is not losing them, but launching them.

This is your life's work!

It should be comforting that Jesus and his parents faced similar times.

The tough transition from son to Savior.

Jesus' life was framed by loving respect with times of transition in between.

Goes home and is obedient to them for eighteen years!

Finishes his life caring for his mom in his worst moment.

There is never a time we do not show love and respect for our parents, but there is a higher call.

We can't imagine how painful this was to hear!

Mary had to wrestle with the transition from son to Savior.

In obedience to Jesus, they are praying the dawn of a new day.

We don't know what the future holds, but we point you to the One who holds the future.

As precious and important and blessed as Mary is, God has a greater blessing for us.

Our focus is not on ... but our focus is on Jesus!
